

FUN FACTS ABOUT UNAFF

HOW IT BEGAN: UNAFF was founded in 1998 by Stanford educator and film critic Jasmina Bojic in conjunction with the 50th anniversary of the signing of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

In 1998: UNAFF was 3 days long, screened 22 documentaries, received over 50 submissions, had 8 jury members

In 2014: UNAFF is 11 days long, presents 70 documentaries, received almost 600 submissions, all screened by the jury, had 28 jury members

Over the past 17 years, UNAFF juries have selected:

- 26 documentaries which received Oscar nominations:
 - Regret to Inform, Genghis Blues, Long Night's Journey Into Day, LaLee's Kin: The Legacy of Cotton, Promises, Daughter from Danang, When Abortion Was Illegal, Twist of Faith, God Sleeps in Rwanda, War/Dance, Salim Baba, Trouble the Water, The Garden, Burma VJ, China's Unnatural Disaster - The Tears of Sichuan Province, The Most Dangerous Man in America: Daniel Ellsberg and the Pentagon Papers, Rabbit a la Berlin, Which Way Home, Gasland, Killing In the Name, Waste Land, The Barber of Birmingham: Foot Soldier of The Civil Rights Movement, Karama Has No Walls, Facing Fear, King's Point, Prison Terminal: The Last Days Of Private Jack Hall
- 7 documentaries which won Academy Awards:
 - The Panama Deception, Thoth, The Blood of Yingzhou District, Freeheld, Taxi to the Dark Side, Saving Face, Inocente

UNAFF PROGRAMS:

- UNAFF TFF (Traveling Film Festival) – The oldest Traveling Film Festival for documentary films ONLY in the world. Since 2000, TFF films are first screened at the main festival in October before going on the road and have taken place in San Francisco, Berkeley, Monterey, Santa Cruz, Davis, Saratoga, Sonoma, Sebastopol, San Diego, Las Vegas, Los Angeles, Salt Lake City, Honolulu, Philadelphia, Chicago, Washington DC, New York, Burlington, Bellevue, Miami, La Crosse, Fryeburg, Houston, Chapel Hill, Durham at Duke University, New Haven at Yale University, Waukesha at University of Wisconsin, Boston and Cambridge at Harvard University and internationally in Paris, Venice, Belgrade, Phnom Penh and Abu Dhabi
- UNAFF in Schools - (targeted at middle & high school students), since 2005, provides films of interest specifically for teens, followed by interesting open discussions with filmmakers and experts in the field of study
- UNAFF for Seniors – since 2007, brings documentaries to senior citizens, helping to keep their minds active and engaged
- UNAFF & Kids (targeted at 7-12 year olds) – since 2008, provides age appropriate films followed by “meet the filmmaker” and hands on activities to teach them in a fun way about the world around us
- UNAFF Café – since 2010, maintains a steady supply of interesting films and informal discussions throughout the year, free and open to the public
- UNAFF for Veterans – since 2014, brings documentaries to veterans and their families