

Media Contact:
Meghan Hurder, Publicist
meghan@unaff.org

17th Annual UNAFF (United Nations Association Film Festival)
2014 THEME: BRIDGING THE GAP

Public Service Announcements

15 Seconds (First Version)

United Nations Association Film Festival celebrates 17 years of groundbreaking documentaries with 70 films from across the globe. October 16th to October 26th with screenings in Palo Alto, East Palo Alto, Stanford University and San Francisco. “Bridging the Gap” is the theme. For more information please visit www.unaff.org

25 Seconds (Second Version)

Join us for the 17th Annual United Nations Association Film Festival, one of the oldest purely documentary film festivals in the US presenting 70 films that will change your view of the world. Screenings, panels, filmmakers from all over the world between October 16 and October 26th in Palo Alto, East Palo Alto, Stanford University and San Francisco. This year’s theme is “Bridging the Gap.” For more information please visit www.unaff.org

45 Seconds (Third Version)

From the streets of Syria, Afghanistan, India, Iraq, Pakistan, Iran, China, Morocco, Rwanda to a new perspective on the Israeli-Palestinian conflict, the slums of the world, the global waste crisis, women at the center of the drive for social change, teens placed in solitary confinement and photography on the front-lines of modern day slavery. These and many more thought-provoking questions will be raised during the 17th United Nations Association Film Festival, which is proud to present 70 documentaries that will change your view of the world, including 24 WORLD PREMIERS and 16 US PREMIERES, with the theme “Bridging the Gap.” Screenings will be held in Palo Alto, East Palo Alto, Stanford University and San Francisco between October 16th and October 26th. For more information please visit www.unaff.org