Palo Alto, CA – The 17th Annual United Nations Association Film Festival (UNAFF) will begin THURSDAY, October 16 in historic downtown Palo Alto at the Aquarius Theatre, 430 Emerson Street with 7 World and 16 US Premieres.

The Festival opens on Thursday, October 16 in Palo Alto with four films: MARIA OF MANY (USA) at 7:00pm; JESUS WAS A COMMIE (USA) at 7:10pm; KING'S POINT (USA) at 7:30pm; TRASHED (China/Indonesia/Lebanon/Turkey/UK/USA) at 8:10pm. All four films will be screened at the Aquarius Theatre in Palo Alto.

MARIA OF MANY (USA), directed by Alexandra Liveris. After being mistreated as a part-time hire, Mexican immigrant María finds her voice, a community, and dignity within the San Francisco Women's Collective—an all women worker-run group that provides cleaning jobs in exchange for activism on behalf of the rights of domestic laborers.

JESUS WAS A COMMIE (USA), directed by Matthew Modine and Terence Ziegler. Did Jesus speak against economic inequalities, or was he a capitalist who taught about rewards based on ability and achievement? This avant-garde story follows “John Doe” as he examines history and science and whether Jesus might have been a utopian communist.

KING'S POINT (USA), directed by Sari Gilman. In the Academy Nominated documentary about five seniors living in a retirement resort in King's Point, Florida. During the 1970s and 1980s, thousands of New York's primarily Jewish senior citizens migrated to King's Point, a retirement community in Florida. Lured by blue skies, sunshine and the promise of richer social lives, they bought paradise for a mere $1500 down payment.

TRASHED (China/Indonesia/Lebanon/Turkey/UK/USA), directed by Candida Brady, follows Academy Award-winner Jeremy Irons on a world tour as he discovers the pressing issues surrounding waste and sustainability. Vast landscapes in China are covered in tons of rubbish. The wide waters of the Ciliwung River in Indonesia are now barely visible under a never-ending tide of plastic. Children swim among leaking bags; mothers wash in the sewage-filled supply.

The Mayor of the City of Palo Alto Nancy Shepard will deliver opening remarks with all invited filmmakers present.
