

Inequality for All - Sept 30

"A must see movie!" Huffington Post

Learn about how drastically rising inequality affects working families, undercuts job, and threatens our economy -- and how changes in laws and regulations have contributed to the problem.

"Until we can take a step back and understand the big picture, we can't do anything to get ourselves out of this mess. Our democracy as we know it depends on it. I'm an educator. I love the classroom. But I also write books, appear on television and on the radio, and do everything else I can do to help people understand the economic truth. It's my life's work and it's more important than ever."

One of the best ways to help people understand the challenges we face, is with a movie that can grab an audience and move them to action."

--Robert Reich, Economist, UC Berkeley Professor, and former US Secretary of Labor

Transition Palo Alto is delighted to host "Inequality for All" as a UNAFF Cafe, in partnership with the United Nations Association Film Festival. This film was shown last year at the 18th UNAFF.

Friday September 30

FREE: Register at EventBrite (<http://tinyurl.com/z5s9753>)

Los Altos Library, 13 S San Antonio Rd, Los Altos

Come at 7pm for tea and cookies

Film starts promptly at 7:30

Stay for conversation after the film!

Conceived in 1998 at Stanford University by film critic and educator Jasmina Bojic in conjunction with the 50th anniversary of the signing of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the United Nations Association Film Festival (UNAFF) screens documentaries by international filmmakers dealing with topics such as human rights, environmental themes, women's issues, children, refugee protection, homelessness, racism, disease control, universal education, war and peace. By bringing together filmmakers, the academic community and the general public, UNAFF offers a unique opportunity for creative exchange and education among groups and individuals often separated by geography, ethnicity and economic constraints. For more details please visit www.unaff.org