

The INDIVIDUAL TO UNIVERSAL series
co-presented with:

Stanford | ARTS

Stanford | Continuing Studies

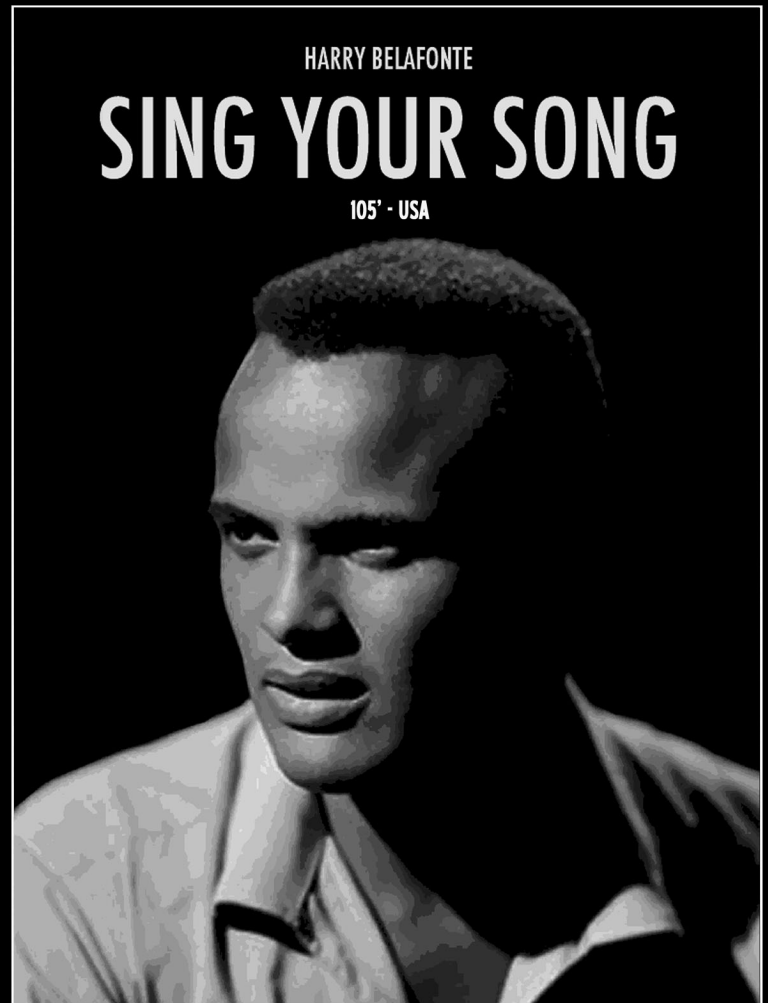

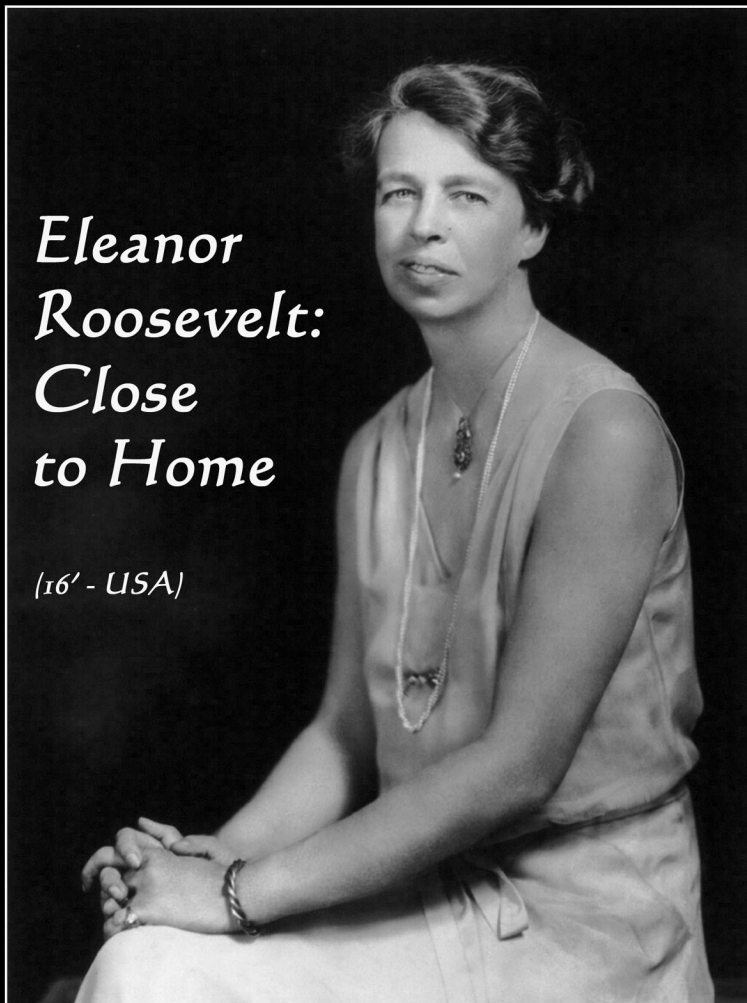

Students for Alternatives to Militarism

Eleanor Roosevelt and Harry Belafonte about racism, politics and human rights

Two films and discussion with Dr. Ramona Tascoe - participant of the 1968 SFSU Black Student Union strike

THURSDAY, May 4 at 7:00 PM - FREE and open to the general public
Cubberley Auditorium, 485 Lasuen Mall, Stanford University

The discussion after the screening moderated by Jasmina Bojic, Camera as Witness Program Director and Founder of the international documentary film festival UNAFF

*CAW is generously supported by the Atlantic Philanthropies, Helen and Peter Bing,
The Marcus Family, the Vice Provost for Undergraduate Education et. al.*