

UNAFF CAFÉ AT THE PALO ALTO CITY LIBRARY: THE RED BUTTON

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 23

2:00 PM

RINCONADA LIBRARY, 1213 NEWELL RD., EMBARCADERO ROOM

Please join us for a screening of the documentary film The Red Button. This film tells the dramatic story of Stanislaw Petrov, the Russian officer who, in 1983, saved the world from atomic war.

Directed by: Ewa Pieta & Miroslaw Grubek. Run time: 52 mins.

Conceived in 1998 at Stanford University by film critic and educator Jasmina Bojic in conjunction with the 50th anniversary of the signing of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, UNAFF screens documentaries by international filmmakers dealing with topics such as human rights, environmental themes, women's issues, children, refugee protection, homelessness, racism, disease control, universal education, war, and peace. By bringing together filmmakers, the academic community and the general public, UNAFF offers a unique opportunity for creative exchange and education among groups and individuals often separated by geography, ethnicity and economic constraints.
