

UNAFF in Libraries

unaff.org

UNITED NATIONS ASSOCIATION
FILM FESTIVAL

Film Series and Discussion

February 4th at 6:30 PM: Racing to Zero: In Pursuit of Zero Waste

A quick-moving, up-beat documentary that presents new solutions to the global problem of waste.

Discussion with United Nations Association Film Festival Founder Jasmina Bojic

February 11th at 6:30 PM : Stink!

Stink! is a first-person story about one father's absurd journey to find out what kinds of chemicals are hidden in a pair of his kid's pajamas.

February 25th at 6:30 PM: Short Film Screenings featuring

The Other Side, Without Country and And Then They Came For Us

The Other Side documents the experience of families greeting each other at the US-Mexico Border Fence. Without Country explores one family's complex and emotional journey involving deportation. And They Came for Us demonstrates the importance of speaking up against any efforts to register or ban Muslims today by examining the executive order that violated the constitutional rights and resulted in the forced incarceration of 120,000 Japanese Americans.

Discussion with Donald K. Tamaki, Lawyer and President of the San Francisco Japantown Foundation

March 4th at 6:30 PM Double Feature of Happy and Lost Crops

Happy explores the secrets behind our most valued emotion. In Lost Crops, A doctor in search of sustainable superfoods teams up with a botanist and humanitarian for a journey of international discovery.

GILROY LIBRARY | 350 West 6th Street | Gilroy, CA 95020

(408) 842-8207 | www.sccl.org/gilroy

