

Stanford | ARTS

CAMERA AS WITNESS Program presents the series
PUBLIC HEALTH, SAFETY, ARTS AND EMPATHY

co-presented with

Stanford Medical School Medicine and the Muse, Palo Alto Libraries, Santa Clara County Library District and Stanford Film Society

THURSDAY, November 19, 7:00-8:00PM

On-line documentaries and Zoom discussion with

Lara Adler	Environmental Toxins Expert and Educator
Dr. John Ioannidis	Epidemiology and Population Health, Stanford Medical School
Dr. James Leckie	Professor Emeritus in the Stanford School of Engineering
Dr. Joe Pizzorno	Chair, Board of Directors, Institute for Functional Medicine moderated by
Jasmina Bojic	Camera as Witness Program Director and Founder of the International Documentary Film Festival UNAFF

To obtain the links to watch the films at home and join the Zoom panel discussion email to rsvp@unaff.org and put STINK&OVERLOAD in the Subject: line by WEDNESDAY, November 18

FREE and open to the general public

CAW is generously supported by the Atlantic Philanthropies, Helen and Peter Bing, The Marcus Family, the Vice Provost for Undergraduate Education et al.