

Stanford | ARTS

CAMERA AS WITNESS Program presents the series THE POWER OF EMPATHY

co-presented with

Freeman Spogli Institute for International Studies, Martin Luther King, Jr. Research & Education Institute, Palo Alto Libraries and Stanford Film Society

THURSDAY, December 10, 4:00-5:00PM

On-line documentary and Zoom discussion with

Michael N. Nagler

Film Director

Steve Michelson

Film Producer

Prof. Clayborne Carson

Director of the MLK Jr. Research and Education Institute

Prof. Stephen Zunes

Professor of Politics and International Studies at USF

moderated by

Jasmina Bojic

*Camera as Witness Program Director and Founder of the International Documentary Film Festival UNAFF

To obtain the link to watch the film at home and join the Zoom panel discussion email to rsvp@unaff.org and put THE THIRD HARMONY in the Subject: line by WEDNESDAY, December 9

FREE and open to the general public

CAW is generously supported by the Atlantic Philanthropies, Helen and Peter Bing, The Marcus Family, the Vice Provost for Undergraduate Education et al.