A close-up photograph of a man with a beard and mustache, looking down and to the left. He is wearing a patterned shirt. The background is a blurred bookshelf filled with books of various colors.

This film follows the story of Hameed who is an Iraqi refugee who was granted United Nations-guaranteed safe passage, to the USA. He lands in Seattle where, after eight years of no education in Iraq, he gains speed with access to a high school education. Hameed’s drive to learn leads to a successful college career and in the fall he begins a PhD program at the University of Illinois.

Live Q&A session includes guest speakers Hameed, Aimie (Film Director), Jasmina (UNAFF Founder and Film Festival Director)
