

Stanford | ARTS

CAMERA AS WITNESS Program presents the series THE POWER OF EMPATHY

co-presented with

*Association of Southeast Asia at the University of Oklahoma, Gandhi-King Global Network, Global Movement for Myanmar Democracy,
Harvard Undergraduate Students for Myanmar, King International Development Association, Stanford Film Society and University of Iowa Myanmar/Burma Student Association*

WEDNESDAY, April 7, 7:00-8:00PM

On-line documentary and Zoom discussion with

Beth Van Schaack

Stanford Law professor

Wai Wai Nu

Founder and Director Women Peace Network in Burma

Aung Htun

Journalist

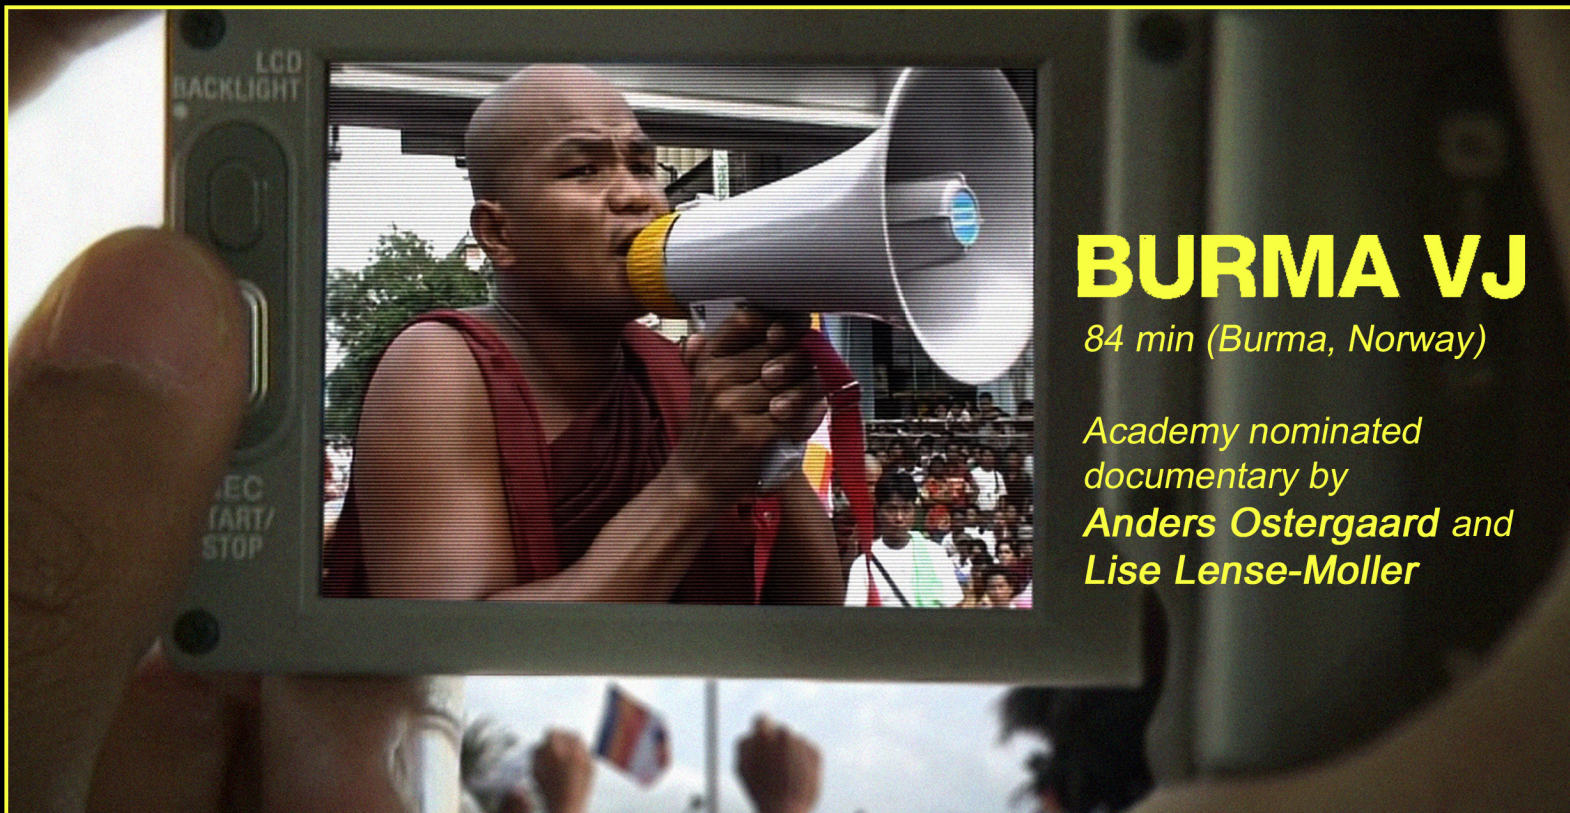

Sandra Tian-Jiao Kong

Co-Founder Global Movement for Myanmar Democracy

moderated by

Jasmina Bojic

*Camera as Witness Program Director and Founder of the International Documentary Film Festival UNAFF

BURMA VJ

84 min (Burma, Norway)

*Academy nominated documentary by
Anders Ostergaard and Lise Lense-Moller

To obtain the link to watch the film at home and join the Zoom panel discussion email to rsvp@unaff.org before Wednesday, April 7
and put BURMA VJ in the “Subject” line

FREE and open to the general public

*CAW is generously supported by the Atlantic Philanthropies, Helen and Peter Bing,
The Marcus Family, the Vice Provost for Undergraduate Education et al.*