

CAMERA AS WITNESS and UNAFF present the series MOVING FORWARD as part of the CDDRL World House Documentary Film Festival in celebration of Martin Luther King, Jr. Day

Conversation with Professor of History Clayborne Carson - founder of the MLK Jr. Institute, filmmakers Abby Ginzberg, Julian Sher, Nefise Özkal Lorentzen, Mirella Martinelli and film subject Seyran Ates moderated by Jasmina Bojic - Camera As Witness Program Director and Founder of the international documentary film festival UNAFF

FREE and open to the general public

To obtain the link to watch the films online in advance between Jan. 12-17 and join the Zoom discussion on Jan. 17, 1-2pm, email to rsvp_caw@unaff.org

BARBARA LEE: SPEAKING TRUTH TO POWER (82')

FRENEMIES (86')

GHOSTS OF AFGHANISTAN (89')

SEYRAN ATES: SEX, REVOLUTION AND ISLAM (82')

CAW is generously supported by the Atlantic Philanthropies, Helen and Peter Bing, the Marcus Family, the Vice Provost for Undergraduate Education et al.