

Stanford | ARTS

Camera as Witness

CAMERA AS WITNESS Program presents the MOVING FORWARD series in-person event celebrating Earth Day co-presented with

Bechtel International Center, Santa Clara County, School of Earth, Energy & Environmental Sciences, Stanford Film Society, Students for a Sustainable Stanford and Stanford Medicine and the Muse

FREE and open to the public

THURSDAY, April 28 8:00PM

Stanford Medical School Li Ka Shing Center Building, Room LK130

YOUTH v GOV (110 min US) a documentary directed by Christi Cooper, produced by Olivia Ahnemann

Following the screening discussion with

Pat Burt

Christi Cooper and Olivia Ahnemann

Miko Vergun and Philip Gregory

Mayor of Palo Alto

filmmakers

subjects of the film moderated by Jasmina Bojic Camera as Witness Program Director and Founder of the International Documentary Film Festival UNAFF

This event is supported by the Billie Achilles fund and the Bechtel International Center

CAW is generously supported by the Atlantic Philanthropies, Helen and Peter Bing,
The Marcus Family, the Vice Provost for Undergraduate Education et al.