

Sponsored by

County Supervisor Joe Simitian and the City of Mountain View

$100 A DAY

FILM SCREENING FOLLOWED BY A PANEL DISCUSSION ON WRONGFUL CONVICTION

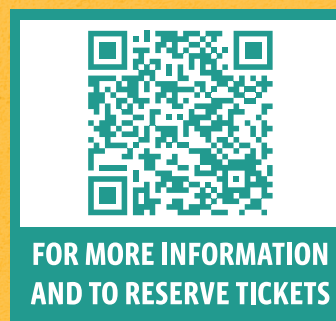

Wednesday, October 4, 2023

Second Stage, Mountain View Center for Performing Arts
500 Castro St, Mountain View, CA 94041

6-8 PM | FREE ADMISSION WITH RSVP

Santa Clara County Supervisor Joe Simitian and the City of Mountain View invite the community to attend a free documentary film screening and panel discussion about wrongful conviction. Attendees will hear from a panel of policy and legal experts who will discuss wrongful incarceration and updates to public policy since the 2003 passage of Assembly Bill 1302.

Authored by Simitian when he was in the California State Assembly, the legislation provided expedited compensation to Rick Walker, a man wrongly convicted of a crime he didn't commit, and for which he was imprisoned for more than a decade. He spent the remainder of his life working to support individuals who were wrongfully incarcerated through advocacy and changes in public policy.

FOR MORE INFORMATION AND TO RESERVE TICKETS

MODERATOR

Megan Swezey Fogarty

*Senior Associate VP for Community Engagement
Stanford University*

PANELISTS

Melissa O'Connell

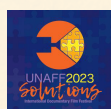

*Co-Legal Director & Policy Liaison
Northern California Innocence Project*

David Angel

*Deputy District Attorney
Santa Clara County*

Obie Anthony

Founder and Director Exonerated Nation

The 26th UNAFF (United Nations Association Film Festival) will be held from October 19-29, 2023. This year's theme, SOLUTIONS, continues our devotion to human rights with an emphasis on strategies and approaches that offer solutions to our burning problems.

For more information about the 26th UNAFF eleven days screenings and panels, October 19-29, please visit www.unaff.org.