I AM ABLE

(13 min) Rwanda/US

Dir/Prod: Isaak & Jacob Seigel-Boettner

A disabled survivor of the Rwanda genocide rebuilds his life through painting, cycling and storytelling, seeking to change people's preconceptions of what it means to be "able" by focusing not on perceived "disabilities", but on the grit that all of us have.

SING YOUR SONG

(105 min) US

Dir: Susan Rostock Prod: Michael Cohl

An up-close look at a great American, Harry Belafonte, one of the truly heroic cultural and political figures of the past sixty years. From Harlem to Mississippi to Africa and South Central Los Angeles a journey through a life of a patriot and champion of human rights.

After the film screenings conversation led by members of the Stanford African Students Association

Moderated by Jasmina Bojic Stanford Educator and Founder and Executive Director of the International Documentary Film Festival UNAFF
